

THANKSGIVING

Jan liked Thanksgiving. She had learned all about the Pilgrims [pan/ tap/ and] Indians in kindergarten. Every year she [learned/ sticker/ dinner] new things about Thanksgiving in school. [Done/ This/ Note] year she had learned that the Indians [taught/ belong/ hungry] the Pilgrims how to grow corn [friend/ going/ better]. Jan liked the way the leaves [to/ on/ is] the trees turned red and yellow. [She/ Dip/ Win] thought Thanksgiving was great.

This year [pea/ her/ two] mother invited many people for Thanksgiving [dinner/ happy/ beside]. She asked Jan's grandparents and aunts [and/ wag/ pull] uncles. Her mother asked twenty people [in/ the/ to] come to dinner. She told Jan [end/ meet/ she] would need her help. Jan was [happy/ stamp/ carry] to help get ready for Thanksgiving.

[Dry/ Cup/ The] next day, Jan helped her mother [glass/ dream/ clean] the house for Thanksgiving. She dusted [fig/ the/ sit] tables. She swept and mopped the [across/ floors/ thinks]. She cleaned the bathrooms. She made [all/ for/ sit] the beds. She washed the windows.

Jan [home/ went/ seen] to the store with her mother. [They/ Shop/ Shall] bought a big turkey. They bought [a/ in/ he] pumpkin. They bought many things for [fought/ dinner/ learn]. At home, Jan carried all the [felt/ sure/ bags] of food into the house.

The [into/ horn/ next] day, Jan helped her mother get [dinner/ cannot/played ready. Jan helped her mother bake pies/ front/ songs. She helped her crack nuts. She planned/ wonder/ helped her make rolls. She helped cook the/ dig/ saw sweet potatoes and corn. She helped came/ cook/ note the dressing.

Then the people started not/ to/ of come. They all hugged Jan and said/ hide/ bone she had grown a foot. Jan's mother/ anyone/ myself asked her to help take care do/ of/ tea her little cousins. Jan took the cousins/ between/ nearby outside to play. She pushed them on/ go/ see the swings. She pulled them in on/ a/ to wagon. She played kickball with them.

At/ In/ Do last, it was time for dinner. Everyone dot/ fun/ ate a lot. They said it shed/ was/ the very good. Then it was time in/ on/ to clear off the table. Jan's mother asked/ count/ seed her to help wash the dishes. Quick/ Then/ Track Jan had to dry and put away/ well/ iron all the dishes. All the people did/ got/ the ready to go home. They said head/ they/ send were thankful for the time they had/ one/ fly together. They were thankful for the choose/ became/ dinner. Jan's mother asked her what she was thankful/ station/ notebook for. Jan said she was thankful Thanksgiving seed/ tape/ only comes once a year.
